

Chapter Twenty-Three: The Emergence of Industrial Society in the West, 1750-1914

Answer each question, at the minimum one paragraph for each answer for full credit.

- 1) Evaluate the influence of the revolutions beginning in 1820 and extending through 1870 in reconstructing the map of Europe and how the reconstruction affected the development of European diplomacy by 1907.
- 2) Appraise how the Industrial Revolution changed the social structure and political alignment of the West.
- 3) Compare the causes of the American and French Revolutions.
- 4) Describe the lasting reforms of the French Revolution.
- 5) Trace new political movements that emerged in the aftermath of the French Revolution.
- 6) Trace the changes that led to industrialization.
- 7) Describe the changes in social organization that industrialization created.
- 8) Identify the links between industrialization and revolution.
- 9) Trace the increase of government functions in response to the “social question.”
- 10) Describe the divergence of science and the arts in the period after 1850.